The republicans of the council got caught in their own trap on the Japanese memorial; and how they did squeal!

Not many married men deceive their wives, but a lot of them do. deceive themselves by their efforts in this line till they imagine they have succeeded.

The shah of Persia, it is announced, will not be buried for a year. Undoubtedly the purpose is to give each member of the harem an opportunity for final leavetaking of the remains.

RUSSELL Sage alive paid taxes on $20,000,000. His estate after his death pays a personal property tax on $50,000,000. And thus does the evil that men do live after them.—Rocky Mountain News.

"NOTHING makes me quite so mad as to be jumped for a mistake made by another man; particularly when the man who jumps me knows I know nothing about the matter."—Parson Twine.

AN income tax would catch the tax dodger. Such a law should be passed by the legislature. Then make it a crime to charge more than a reasonable interest for money loaned. Such laws would be of interest to the people of this territory who are the bone and sinew of our commonwealth.

A LAW should be enacted compelling county boards of equalization to complete its labors before the territorial board meets, except to make such alterations as are ordered by the territorial board. As the law is now the county boards certify the amount of assessable property at its July meeting and on this the territorial board makes the territorial tax levy. After this is done the county boards again meet with the power to raise and lower valuations. At present it is within the power of the county boards to raise valuations so that the territory would have a great deal too much money or lower them so that it would not have enough.

Fences on Public Domain

Department of the Interior, Secretary's Office, Washington, D. C., January 3, 1907. Order.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Sir: Referring to the circular of instructions to special agents of your office, approved by me on January 29, 1904, relative to their duties under the act of February 25, 1885 (23 Stat., 321), entitled "An act to prevent unlawful occupancy of the public lands," you are advised that said circular is hereby amended and modified as follows:

Strike out from said circular paragraphs 5 and 6, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

It shall be the duty of the special agent on receipt of any charge or complaint or upon information being acquired by him from any source, that an unlawful inclosure is being maintained by any person or persons, association, or corporation, to at once proceed to secure sufficient data, including a description of the lands inclosed, with reasonable certainty, not necessarily by metes and bounds, nor by governmental subdivisions of surveyed land, but only so that the inclosure may be identified and the person or persons guilty of the violation, as nearly as may be, and by description if the same can not, on reasonable inquiry, be ascertained, and to at once submit such case, with the data thus obtained, to the United States attorney for prosecution.

It shall be the duty of the special agent, and he shall be so instructed, to be alert and vigilant to detect the existence of unlawful inclosures in his district and to proceed in accordance therewith as hereinabove directed, and that he is not to construe his duties as requiring that, before proceeding in the matter of an unlawful inclosure, there must first be filed with him a formal complaint by some person or persons acquainted with the facts, but it shall be his duty, as hereinabove stated, to take the initiative himself.

In this connection you are further instructed, by direction of the president, to at once notify all of the special agents and receivers and registers of local land offices throughout the United States, and to give the widest publicity thereto to the provisions of said act of February 25, 1885, for the summary destruction of inclosures and obstructions existing in violation of said act will be rigidly enforced on and after April 1, 1907.

Respectfully,
E. A. HITCHCOCK,
Secretary of the Interior.

A Girl Private Secretary

The new private secretary to Philadelphia's reform mayor is a slip of a girl. Her name is Margaret Foerderer, her age is only twenty-two and when she stepped into the position that generally goes only to diplomats or astute male politicians, she was the first woman who ever filled a like place in Pennsylvania.

Besides being very young Miss Foerderer is very pretty, and—take notice—she is not a woman suffragist. She is the kind of a girl who runs to intelligence without being mannish.

Primarily, the position of private secretary requires tact and practical knowledge. Miss Foerderer's predecessors had these qualities developed so thoroughly that all of them have stepped from the $3,000 job in the mayor's office to positions paying from $5,000 to $15,000 a year. When Mayor Weaver appointed the girl to the place left vacant by George A. Welsh's rise, he said: "She's got the tact and she's got the knowledge. She can deal with men. If she wasn't a girl I think she might be mayor some day herself."—New York American.

Freak Calf Meets Death

Having to heads and not knowing which to follow caused the death of a calf on the Southern Pacific track near Nogales a couple of weeks ago. The Nogales Oasis says that the calf was walking along the track when a freight train came rumbling along. The engineer seeing the danger of a head-on collision, tooted the whistle viciously and the startled calf made a trembling effort to get off the track. One head faced the right and the other head faced the left. When the freak animal endeavored to move, the right leg moved to the right and the left leg moved to the left. Sprawling thus, with the fore feet stretched out to their limit, she was struck by the engine and crushed to death. It was a clear case of two heads not being better than one. The freak in a terror knew not what head to follow and endeavored to move in opposite directions at the same time. The train crew cut the head off the monstrosity and brought it to Nogales, where it was viewed by curious crowds all day.

Hunting for Trouble

"I've lived in California for 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra county. No use hunting. Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed by all druggists. 25c.

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Lovins, Grand Junction Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment, last winter, for rheumatism and can recommend it as the best liniment on the market. I thought, at the time I was taken down with this trouble, that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days."

A Feller Feelin'

A cowboy who had spent all of his life out in the sage brush and who had never been in a church or heard a sermon took a vacation and went east to a town. While there he was induced to attend church. The minister told the story of Jonah remaining in the belly of the whale for three days, and of Sampson slaying 1,000 Philistines with the jawbone of an ass. After the sermon the cowboy walked forward and held out his hand to the minister, saying, "Shake, Mister. I have a feller feelin' for you. I'm something of a liar myself."

George Crook, who long pursued Geronimo through the Arizona mountains, is savagely attacked. After accusing Gen. Crook of practically every thing that he can think of Geronimo winds up by piously remarking that the Lord had taken away the wicked General while he, Geronimo, is left to enjoy earthly bliss.
